Introduction

Badoink is a unique site that offers you the access of a huge members area paysite but comes complete with its own software as well. Having a more robust interface allows you to use the content more easily, especially for things like burning porn to your own DVDs for viewing on an HD television. You can watch the scenes on your computer normally, but if burning smut to disc is your goal then this site is a great choice. If you just want to see people fuck, this site is a little more work than some others.
