Introduction

Wanted List VOD claims to be a Video On Demand site but they do not charge a pay-per-minute fee. Instead there is a flat monthly fee of $24.95 per month to watch over 22,000 videos from well over 3,000 DVDs in their archives. Their price per day and per disc is lower than some of their more full-featured competitors and they also have a DVD by mail option where they will mail you porn DVDs much the same way Netflix handles mainstream movies. One major drawback is that none of the movies can be downloaded or saved. It's all streaming online only.
