Introduction

In his latest production Brandon Iron is back and he is breaking in some of the freshest faces in the business. Watch as one new darling after another opens wide so Brandon can fully load their mouth.

Adult Review

There have not been a lot of male performers over the years who manage to inspire a loyal fan base among male viewers the way Brandon Iron has. Brandon has become one of the few to accomplish this difficult task because of his on screen intensity and his ability to provide content that gives the subscriber a sense of what it would be like to be the guy in each scene.

In his latest online offering, Brandon has assembled a large collection of interviews he conducted with women he had not worked with before. The vast majority are brand new to the business and some in fact were never seen in any other adult role after their performance on this website.

In each clip the girl is interviewed and then Brandon takes them for a quick and dirty test drive to see what they are made of. Some are shy and willing to do only the basics, others are on a mission to make it big in the industry and immediately go for the gusto!

Each and every clip ends with the female performer opening her mouth wide for Brandon to deliver his full payload inside. The variety of reactions to Brandon's finishing move is something that could easily be the subject of an extensive sociology report. Some girls love it, some wretch and hate it, some laugh while others seem disgusted... but no matter what they do each one gets a load right in their mouth.

Every video provided is offered in multiple formats for both dialup friendly and broadband enhanced downloads. All scenes also come with an extensive picture set for you to enjoy and none of the clips use DRM coding so once you download them they are each yours to keep in your permanent collection.

If you want access to some of the newest girls, some that you may never have another chance to see ever again anywhere, or if you respect the legendary work of Brandon Iron and want to learn from the master then this is a site you will want to add to your membership portfolio.

Also, get a good look at the huge list of sites included in your membership which are shown on the right side of this review. One low price gets you full access to each and every site shown on that list and believe me that is a heck of a bang for your buck!
