Introduction

2Lips Cams is a small webcam site that currently has 15 models, with three or four online at any given moment. Most of the models charge $3.49 per minute to do live shows. Having a small number of models available at a high price per minute makes this an unlikely choice for perverts interested in live cam shows when compared to other sites reviewed on The Tongue. The site is growing and also offers Gold Membership paid access to some non-exclusive video feeds so hopefully it will continue to improve.
